Higher education, VET or both

Find some career ideas by taking the Job Outlook Quiz.

VET qualifications and programs include: Certificates, Diplomas, Traineeships and Apprenticeships.

VET delivers real skills for real careers. A qualification can take 3 months to 3 years.

You could access VET Student Loans and some state funding for selected VET studies.

Search myskills, for VET providers and VET course information.

If you already have a career in mind, look into the qualifications you might need at Job Outlook.

Uni or higher education qualifications include: Diplomas, Associate Degrees, Bachelors, Honours, Masters and PhDs.

An enabling course at uni can take 6 months to 1 year. Other undergraduate degrees at uni take 3 to 5 years.

Many education providers offer subsidised enrolments and HELP loans.

Search Course Seeker to compare courses and providers. Compare student experiences at ComparED.

So uni or VET (or both) may suit you. Next, contact places where you would like to study, to compare costs and requirements.

When your study path is clear, take the next step on your career pathway.

February 2020
Choose your own VET pathway

Now you’ve decided to study a vocational education and training (VET) course, what next?

START

- Identify on-campus or online study options.
- Check out helpful resources about where VET could take you.
- Get information about a Unique Student Identifier (USI).
- Discover the career success stories of the Australian VET Alumni.

DO YOUR RESEARCH

- Go to www.myskills.gov.au to discover the many ways to succeed through VET.
- Check if the training is accredited.
- See if the course is offered as an Australian Apprenticeship.
- Learn about course costs and VET financial assistance.
- Browse the industry areas your qualification could take you.

Explore training providers

There are many registered training providers throughout Australia.

Explore courses

Choose from lots of qualifications ranging from a Certificate I to a Graduate Diploma.

Create a USI and enrol in a course.

Good luck with your studies

If you use a VET Student Loan, you will need to pay it back once you are earning a certain amount of money.
There are lots of ways to start higher education.

- VET qualification and transition to university
- Enabling or sub-bachelor course (e.g., bridging course)
- Recognition for previous study
- Recognition for previous work experience
- Local arrangements (individual higher education provider options, e.g., principal recommendation, direct entry)
- Apply: Check out different provider and TAC websites for how to apply

Higher Education

These options mean more students than ever are getting into uni.

February 2020
Choose your own higher education pathway

Now you’ve decided on an undergraduate course, what next?

START

LOOK INTO YOUR OPTIONS

Ask questions to help you decide where to study.

On campus or online study?

Is the course offered as a CSP?

Search and compare courses using Course Seeker.

Compare the quality of public and private providers.

How much will the whole course cost?

Is the provider approved to offer you a HELP loan?

PUBLIC UNIVERSITY

The Australian Government could pay for part of your study via a Commonwealth supported place (CSP).

The remaining part is your student contribution.

You could get a HECS-HELP loan if you can't pay it upfront.

OTHER PROVIDER

Private university, institute, college or TAFE.

You could get a FEE-HELP loan if you can't pay your tuition fees upfront.

Good luck with your studies!

If you use a HELP loan, you will need to pay it back once you are earning over the repayment threshold.

February 2020
Government loans for your bachelor degree

FEES

You can get a study place where the government pays part of your tuition fees. This is called a Commonwealth supported place (CSP). The rest of your tuition fees are called your student contribution amount. You can pay this upfront or get a HECS-HELP loan.

If you apply at a non-university higher education provider, you will probably enrol in a fee-paying place. This means that you pay the full tuition fees.

No matter where you study, you could be charged a student services and amenities fee for non-academic activities.

You may have extra expenses when you study, like a laptop, text books, and accommodation.

LOANS

HECS-HELP

If you can't afford to pay your student contribution amount upfront, you could access a HECS-HELP loan.

OS-HELP

After one year of full-time study in a CSP, you could apply for an OS-HELP loan to help pay for overseas study.

FEE-HELP

If you can't afford to pay your tuition fees upfront, you could get a FEE-HELP loan. For a bachelor degree you will also have to pay a loan fee.

SA-HELP

If you can't pay this fee upfront, you could get a SA-HELP loan.

LIMITS

From 1 January 2020, there will be a cap on all HELP loans, including HECS-HELP. This cap is $106,319 for most students and is called the HELP loan limit.

In 2020, you could get two OS-HELP loans in your lifetime and each loan could be up to $8,295.

In 2020, the FEE-HELP limit will become the combined HELP loan limit. For most students, the limit will be $106,319. If you study medicine, dentistry or vet sciences the limit is $152,700.

In 2020, students can be charged up to $308 and a SA-HELP loan can be used for the full amount.

You can't use a HELP loan for these expenses but you might be able to get a different government loan or payment like Youth Allowance, Austudy or ABSTUDY. Use the Payment and Service Finder to see if you are eligible. You may also be eligible for an extra payment if you are a regional, rural or remote student. See the factsheet on Rural, regional and remote student support in this guide.
Help with fees if you study at a public university

A Commonwealth supported place (CSP) is where the government pays part of your fees. CSPs are offered at all public universities in Australia (and some TAFEs and non-university higher education providers too).

You can choose to pay the rest of your tuition fees upfront or get a loan from the government. This type of support is called a HECS-HELP loan and you will need to meet the eligibility requirements.

If you get HECS-HELP, the money doesn't go straight to you. The Government pays the money to your provider.

You can keep track of your HELP debt by using the myGov service.

Use the Payment and Service Finder to find out if you can get other government payments like Youth Allowance, Austudy or ABSTUDY.

THE IMPORTANT STUFF

- Which course and university are best for you? Compare ATAR's and entry requirements or what previous students thought about their higher education experiences.

- Contact your chosen uni or non-university higher education provider to see if they can offer you a CSP, and to help you apply for a HECS-HELP loan. Ask about important dates and deadlines.

- You can get a CSP and a HECS-HELP loan even if you have a job. It doesn't matter how much you (or your parents, carers or partner) earn.

- Contact your chosen uni or other provider to find out about course costs.

- If you don't already have a tax file number, get one now! You can't get a HECS-HELP loan without it.

- Don't forget, a HECS-HELP loan is like any other loan, which means you have to pay it back. You only start making repayments when your income reaches a certain amount.
Help with tuition fees if you study at a non-university higher education provider

FEE-HELP is a loan you could use to cover your tuition fees if you can't pay them upfront.

To get a FEE-HELP loan, you have to be studying an approved course and your non-university higher education provider must be approved to offer HELP loans. Not all providers offer FEE-HELP. Before you sign up for anything, contact your intended provider to see if you can access FEE-HELP for your chosen course.

If you get FEE-HELP, the money doesn't go straight to you. The Government pays the money to your provider.

You can keep track of your HELP debt by using the myGov service.

Use the Payment and Service Finder to find out if you can get other government payments like Youth Allowance, Austudy or ABSTUDY.

THE IMPORTANT STUFF

- Which course and private higher education provider is best for you? Compare entry requirements or what previous students thought about their higher education experiences.

- Your chosen TAFE or private non-university higher education provider will help you with the application for a FEE-HELP loan. Ask them about important dates and deadlines.

- You can get a FEE-HELP loan even if you have a job. It doesn't matter how much you (or your parents, carers or partner) earn.

- Some FEE-HELP study has a 25% loan fee.

- If you don't already have a tax file number, get one now! You can't get a FEE-HELP loan without it.

- Don't forget, a FEE-HELP loan is like any other loan, which means you have to pay it back. You only start making repayments when your income reaches a certain amount.

February 2020
VET Student Loans assists people studying approved Vocational Education and Training (VET) courses at approved VET providers. You can use it to pay for your tuition fees (up to a capped amount).

To get a VET Student Loan, you need to study an approved VET qualification at the diploma-level or higher. Look for the ‘VSL’ in bold print when searching on myskills to find out which courses are approved.

You also need to meet citizenship and other entry requirements. To see if you’re likely to be eligible, check out the VSL Eligibility Tool at https://www.myskills.gov.au/more/financial-assistance/.

If you get a VET Student Loan, the money doesn't go straight to you. The Government pays the money to your provider. You pay back the money once you’re earning a certain amount.

Know what you’re signing up for. Compare costs, resources, class times and job opportunities. Use the myskills website to search and compare VET courses and training providers.

Not all VET providers offer VET Student Loans. Before you sign up for anything, search myskills to see if you can access VET Student Loans for your chosen course (look for ‘VSL’ in bold print) and compare providers in your location.

Depending on what you want to study, there is a limit to how much you can borrow – $5,264, $10,528 or $15,793 (2020 amounts). If your provider charges more, you may have to pay the gap or you may be eligible for a subsidy. Use ATO online services to keep an eye on how much VET Student Loans you access.

If you don’t already have a tax file number, get one now! You can’t get a VET Student Loan without it.
Help with paying your student services and amenities fee (SSAF)

SA-HELP is a loan you could get to cover your SSAF if you are eligible. The SSAF is a fee that universities and other higher education providers can charge students for non-academic stuff, like sporting events, career advice and much more.

If you get SA-HELP, the money doesn't go straight to you. The Government pays the money to your provider.

THE IMPORTANT STUFF

- In 2020, the annual Student Services and Amenities fee cannot be more than $308 (per person, per course). The amount you pay will depend if you study full-time or part-time.

- You need to apply for a SA-HELP loan through your uni or private higher education provider. Don't forget to ask them about deadlines for the application.

- You can get a SA-HELP loan even if you have a job. It doesn't matter how much you (or your parents, carers or partner) earn.

- If you don't already have a tax file number, get one now! You can't get a SA-HELP loan without it.

- Don't forget, a SA-HELP loan is like any other loan, which means you have to pay it back. You only start making repayments when your income reaches a certain amount.

February 2020
Get help to study overseas

OS-HELP is a loan that helps eligible students to study part of their course overseas. Students can use the loan for airfares, accommodation or other travel costs.

To get an OS-HELP loan, you must be enrolled at an Australian provider in a CSP. Your first full year of full-time study must be completed in Australia, and you must have some study remaining for when you get back.

You could get two OS-HELP loans in your lifetime, and each loan could be up to $8,295 in 2020. The amount depends on where in the world you study.

If you get OS-HELP, the money goes straight to you.

THE IMPORTANT STUFF

- The overseas study must be full-time and count towards your Australian degree.

- All unis have their own application process. Contact your uni to confirm details about the application, selection and deadlines.

- You can still get an OS-HELP loan even if you have a job. It doesn't matter how much you (or your parents, carers or partner) earn.

- If you don’t already have a tax file number, get one now! You can’t get an OS-HELP loan without it.

- Don’t forget, the OS-HELP loan is like any other loan, which means you have to pay it back. You only start making repayments when your income reaches a certain amount.
Rural, regional and remote student support

Opportunities and support for students in rural, regional and remote communities

Regional University centres
Regional University centres provide study spaces, video link-ups, computers and internet. Student services and academic support is also available at each Centre.

Remote Area Allowance
A regular extra payment if you live in a remote area and get an income support payment from Centrelink. You can also get this if you moved to a remote area and will stay longer than 12 months.

Scholarships
You can get a scholarship of up to $18,000 if you are from a regional or remote area and you want to study science, technology, engineering, mathematics, agriculture or health courses.

Relocation Scholarship
A once-a-year payment if you get ABSTUDY, Youth Allowance or Energy Supplement and need to move to or from a regional or remote area for higher education study.

Rent Assistance
A regular extra payment if you pay rent and get certain payments from Centrelink.

Student travel concessions
Most full-time, on-campus undergraduate students can get cheaper travel. Contact your local transport office to find out.
Extra financial help while you study

Here are some common payments and support services that students, Australian Apprentices and trainees can receive

CENTRELINK HELP

Youth Allowance
Youth Allowance is a payment for people 16 to 24 who are studying full-time, doing an Australian Apprenticeship full-time, looking for work or sick.

Austudy
Austudy is a payment for people 25 or older who are studying or doing an Australian Apprenticeship full-time.

ABSTUDY
ABSTUDY is a group of payments for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students or Australian Apprentices.

Other Centrelink help
If you have to move away from home to study you may be eligible for other help, including Relocation Scholarship, Fares Allowance, and ABSTUDY Fares Allowance.

Rent Assistance is a regular extra payment if you pay rent and get certain Centrelink payments. To help you with other costs you may be able to get a Student Start-up Loan. The loan is voluntary and you need to pay it back.

EXTRA FINANCIAL HELP

Scholarships and bursaries
Scholarships and bursaries can cover an array of costs from tuition fees to living and accommodation costs. Speak to your provider's student enrolments or administration area about what they can offer you.

Assistance for travel costs
Check with your local transport office to see if you can get a travel concession card.
